P6/1/21 Chairman's Report

- Winter Wonderland continues to lift the spirits.
- Doomgate – we need to monitor plans for recycling plant during works to ensure that the service is available to the residents. Cllr Pape has offered to look at the land adjacent to the car park, the Clark unable to visit site due to COVID restrictions. Chairman suggested that perhaps that area is too close to houses who may be disturbed by noise.
- There are several road closures around the town including Station road for 5 days commencing 15/02/21.

P7/01/21 Covid issues

- Rotary will replace the spacing tape in town once restrictions are lifted.
- Residents over 70 who have not had a vaccine should be encouraged to do so.
- NHS Poster to be pinned on ATC website.

P8/01/21 Appleby in Bloom (AIB)

The Clerk reported that a small working party met via Zoom, Cllr Davidson, and K Wignall will begin to co-ordinate the project moving forward.

The family of the late Dick Stevenson will replant the flower boxes at the Boroughgate bus stop in preparation for the funeral procession on the 19 February. The Mayor and some Councillors will be in attendance on the procession route to pay respects. Councillors paid tribute the late Mr Stevenson who has contributed so much to Appleby town over the years.

P9/01/21 Councillors' reports and items for future agenda

- Doomgate Project – invite Environment Agency for update

There being no further business the meeting closed at 19.49
