

Appleby-in-Westmorland Town Council

Equality and Diversity Policy

The aim of this policy is to communicate the commitment of Appleby in Westmorland Town Council, its Councillors and employees to meeting the Public Sector Equality Duty, which came into force on 5 April 2011. The Equality Duty applies to public bodies and others carrying out public functions. It supports good decision-making by ensuring public bodies consider how different people will be affected by their activities, helping them to deliver policies, representation and services which are efficient and effective; accessible to all; and which meet different people's needs.

It is our policy to provide representation, information, facilities, services and employment to all irrespective of:

- Gender, including gender reassignment.
- Marital or civil partnership status
- Having just had a baby or being pregnant
- Having or not having dependants
- Religious belief or political opinion
- Race (including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins)
- Disability
- Sexual orientation
- Age

The Council is opposed to all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. All people and employees will be treated fairly and will not be discriminated against on any of the above grounds. All decisions will be made objectively and without unlawful discrimination.

The Council recognises that supporting Equality is of primary importance. This policy will help both Councillors and employees to develop sound and effective policies that impact on the village/town/community and surrounding areas.

The Council aims to create a culture that respects and values each others' differences, that promotes dignity, equality, and diversity. We aim to remove barriers, bias or discrimination that prevent individuals or groups from realising their potential and contributing fully to the community to develop a culture that positively values diversity.

The Council will challenge discrimination. It aims to provide equality and fairness to all in the community and expects all Councillors and employees to be aware and understand the Equality Act 2010.

Equality Commitments

The Council is committed to:

- Promoting equality of opportunity for all persons.

- Promoting a good and harmonious environment in which all persons are treated with respect.

Monitoring and Review

The Council will establish appropriate information and monitoring systems to assist the effective implementation of our equal opportunities policy.

In addition to our internal procedures, any person has the right to pursue complaints of discrimination under the Equality Act 2010.

This Freedom of Information Policy will be reviewed annually by Appleby-in-Westmorland Town Council at the Council Meeting held in January.

This policy has been agreed and approved by Appleby-in-Westmorland Town Council.
